GIVE YOUR STOMACH A NICE VACATION.

Den't the It By Starving It Pither-let a Substitute Do the Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most im-portant organs of the human system, as perfort organs of the human average it does to the man bimself.

If your stamach is worn out and rebels against being taxed beyond its limit, the only sensible fring you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a silert time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.
Scuart's Insepapaia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stem of his fast the same way that the stomach itself would were it well. They Attorneys for Vermont Woman Condemned to Die This Afternoon Take Affidavits Alleging Insanity to the Governor.

Montpelier, Vt., Dec. 7.—A final attempt to prolong the life of Mrs. Mary Mabel Rogers, whose execution has been set for to-morrow, will be made early, in the morning.

Governor Charles J. Bell, who has been in the West, left Montreal to-night for White River Junction, where he has arranged to remain to-morrow, in order to be within easy reach of the State officials and attorneys. E. B. Flynn of Springfield, Vt., one of the lawyers who has been working in behalf of the condemned woman for more than a year, left Montpelier to-night for St. Johns, Quebec, where he expects to intercept the Governor before midnight to talk over the situation, and inform the Governor of the latest steps being taken to have Mrs. Rogers reprieved.

Charles A. McCarthy of Hoosic Falls, N. Y., the home of Mrs. Rogers's relatives, reached this city to-night, and will accompany Mr. Flynn to White River Junction for the purpose of presenting a number of affidavits to Governor Bell, if the latter will acceive them, and agree to grant a hearing.

Mrs. Jessie Partion of Chelmiall, who says she herrs a petition with 4.000 sig-natures, in favor of saving the life of the condenned woman, arrived here to-night and departed for Montpeller Junction to board the train which carries the tlov-

Woman Apparenty Calm.

Window, Vt., Dec. 7.—Preparations for the hanging of Mrs. Mary M. Rogers were practically completed to-night, and unless Governor Bell again reprieves her the murdeross will pay the penalty of her crime to-morrow.

The Deputy Sheriffs have been busy all day and with the help of a carpenter they set up the gallows in the west wing of the prison, where it has been erected twice before the execution of the woman. Several of the official withnesses have arrived, and others will be here in the morning. Sheriffs from out of the county will be present.

Deputy Sheriff A. McAu'ey of Wilder will spring the trap, as originally planned. It is not thought that Mrs. Rogers will collapse, for her apparent indifference to her fate was as marked to-night as it has been ever since the was imprisoned. Turing the afterneon Sheriff Peck formally read the death warrant to Mrs. Rogers. She listened without emotion. This was the third time that the death warrant had been read to her.
